

Article 9 – RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES OF APSCUF – Section I

APSCUF shall have the right to use the University's mail (including electronic mail) distribution service for APSCUF official communications. The University will not block APSCUF e-mail addresses or attempt to view APSCUF official communications transmitted on the University's electronic mail system. This section shall not otherwise modify the understanding that the electronic mail system is owned by the State System and shall not confer an expectation of privacy on the faculty member.
