* For employees hired prior to July 1, 2011

- With the incorporation of personal leave into annual leave, the following provisions from the personal leave article were adopted into the annual leave article, effective with the beginning of the 2017 leave calendar year:
  - Requests for up to four days per year of emergency annual leave shall not be unreasonably denied, with two of the four days available for extraordinary annual leave, for which no documentation is required.
  - An employee’s request for annual leave on the employee’s birthday received in writing at least 45 calendar days prior to the employee’s birthday shall be approved.
  - A temporary employee shall be permitted to use up to a full shift of accrued annual leave on a holiday that the temporary employee is not scheduled to work provided the use of accrued annual leave does not result in the employee receiving more than 37.5/40.0 hours in a work week.
  - Permanent employees with less than one year of service since their last date of hire may, at the Employer’s discretion, anticipate up to one day (7.5 or 8.0 hours) of annual leave before it is earned.

Article 14: Sick Leave and Bereavement Leave

- Effective with the beginning of the 2017 leave calendar year, employees who have more than one year of service since their most recent date of hire and who use no sick leave (other than sick leave used for sick bereavement leave) in an entire one-half leave calendar year shall earn an additional 3.75 or 4.0 hours annual leave.

Article 15: Civil Leave - No Change
Article 16: Military Leave - No Change

Article 17: Leaves of Absence without Pay

- The AFSCME Next Wave Convention was added as an official union convention or conference for which leave without pay shall be granted.

- Effective with the beginning of the 2017 leave calendar year, sick leave without pay shall be replaced by a renamed Article 18, FMLA.

Article 18: Parental Leave

Article 41: Family Care Leave

- Effective with the beginning of the 2017 leave calendar year, parental leave and family care leave without pay shall be replaced by a renamed Article 18, FMLA.

New Article 18: Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) Leave

- Effective with the beginning of the 2017 leave calendar year, the six month entitlement to sick, parental, family care, and military exigency leave will be reduced from six months to 12 weeks, and it will be referred to as FMLA leave with benefits.

- Upon request of a permanent employee, an extension may be granted. The extension is increased from six months to nine months, and shall be with benefits for the first 13 weeks (91 calendar days) and without benefits for the remainder of the extension.

- An employee shall not be required to use annual, compensatory or holiday leave upon the commencement of FMLA leave; however, if any paid leave is used, it will run concurrently with and reduce the entitlements to both FMLA leave with benefits and FMLA leave without benefits. An employee shall be required to use all applicable accrued sick leave (sick family or additional sick family for family care reasons) upon commencement of FMLA leave, but can choose to retain up to ten days of accrued sick leave.

- References to the entitlements in the existing SPF articles and the life insurance and health benefits articles are adjusted to match the 12 week and nine month entitlement.

Article 19: Salaries & Wages

- October 2016 2.75% General Pay Increase
- July 2017 2.00% General Pay Increase
- January 2018 Step Increment
- July 2018 2.50% General Pay Increase
- January 2019 Step Increment
Article 20: Overtime - No Change

Article 21: Shift Differential - No Change

Article 22: Call Time - No Change

Article 23: Standby Time - No Change

Article 24: Life Insurance

- Permanent employees who are granted leave in accordance with the sick, parental, family care, FMLA, and injury leave articles will continue to receive coverage under the current life insurance plan for the duration of leave with benefits as described in those articles and may remain in the program for up to one year by paying the entire premium.

Article 25: Health Benefits
